Dear Friend and Supporter of our Association:

On June 11-14, 2017, the East Tennessee Funeral Directors & Morticians Association will host the 95th Annual Convention of the Tennessee State Funeral Directors & Morticians Association, Inc. The convention will be held at the Embassy Suites in Chattanooga, Tennessee. The convention is designed to promote a healthy relationship and better ways to serve our communities throughout the state of Tennessee. Professionals from all across the state of Tennessee will be in Chattanooga for this annual event, and we want to make sure our delegates have the best professional experience possible. Therefore, we want to encourage each of you to be a participant in the convention and in the planned activities.

In making sure that we have a successful convention, we are requesting your assistance. As usual the convention will begin with the printing of our souvenir book and memorial services on Sunday, June 11th at 7:00 o'clock pm. Also, this year at the Awards Banquet, Mr. John P. Franklin, Sr. will be recognized as the organization's Professional of the Year. We are asking for your support in the printing of our souvenir book by purchasing an advertisement in one of the categories listed below.

The Tennessee State Funeral Directors & Morticians Association, Inc. is a non-profit educational organization. The main recipients of our scholarships are students that attend John A. Gupton College of Mortuary Science to become licensed professional morticians to practice in the state of Tennessee.

Please complete the enclosed form and return it on or before May 15, 2013 to assure that your advertisement will be included in the souvenir book.

We appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

East Tennessee Funeral Directors Patrons and Ads Committee
